TOURISM TRINIDAD CELEBRATES TRINIDAD'S TRIUMPH AT INAUGURAL CARIBBEAN BAKING AWARDS

Port of Spain, February 23, 2024: Tourism Trinidad extends its heartfelt congratulations to Dexter Cambridge and his team for their outstanding victory in the first annual Caribbean Baking Awards Wine & Cake Tasting Showcase Competition. Their award-winning cake, 'Queen of Bacchanal,' not only showcased exceptional skill and creativity but also beautifully captured the vibrant spirit of Trinidad and Tobago's Carnival culture.

This prestigious win underscores our rich culinary heritage and strengthens our position as a leading destination for food-focused tourism. As Tourism Trinidad intensifies its focus on festivals in 2024, highlighting fashion, music, and the culinary arts, this victory serves as a source of inspiration and pride.

We eagerly anticipate hosting the Culinary Festival later in 2024, where we will showcase Trinidad and Tobago's diverse culinary landscape to visitors from around the world. This festival will celebrate our unique flavors, traditions, and the talented individuals who continue to elevate our island's gastronomy scene.

Tourism Trinidad Limited remains committed to supporting and promoting the immense talent found within Trinidad and Tobago. Dexter Cambridge's Caribbean Baking Awards victory is a testament to our nation's potential and serves as a reminder of the incredible experiences that await visitors to our shores.
